

YOUR JOURNEY SO FAR—COACH

In addition to your knowledge of Law of Attraction and Allowing, understanding the Science and Psychology behind the LOA and being able to apply these principles, you now hold many powerful keys for truly Allowing Coaching Success:

1. You know the importance of “Coaching the Coach.”
2. You know “Your Core Focus” and what makes being a LOA/AYS coach unique and powerful.
3. You know how to set a “Precedent for Excellence” to attract and allow the ideal clients and flow.
4. You know how to help free-flowing clients see the value of “Structure as a Complement to Flow.”
5. You have your “Forms for a Fabulous Focus” to help both you and your client stay on track and know the who, what, when, where, why and how to use them.
6. You have upgraded your relationship with money so that you are now “Allowing Value for All.”

7. You've got a great jumping off point for "Fee Structure Ideas" that honor both you and your client, encourage longer-term agreements, and ensure that you and your client are on the same page including:

→ Suggestions for creating a fee schedule sheet

→ A coaching agreement/contract template you can use

8. You know the keys to "Allowing a Successful Interview" and how to come away with a gift EVERY time!

9. You have a great template for establishing your "Coaching Program Flow" so that you roll like the pro you ARE and create amazing results for your clients!

You have the template, now it's time to dig in to the tools that will help both you and your client truly allow success!

→ I've also included special videos for you called "Coach's Corner" where I share additional insights about working with the tools from a coach's perspective and...

→ You know how we mentioned the idea of bonuses, upgrades and happy surprises? As you watch the "Coach's Corner" videos, you may also discover a bonus tool (or two, or...) throughout that section so you can offer your clients even more great options for feeding well-being and realizing their dreams.
